classical music

Almost heaven, West Virginia! About an hour away, the Wheeling Symphony has been making great music for 76 years. It's re-energized with new music director André Raphael Smith, who brings distinguished career experience. I heard his excellent Mahler's Fifth earlier this season at the Capitol Music Hall when we made the trip to interview Smith for WQED tv13's "OnQ" magazine. Smith is shaking up the traditional maestro myths in lots of good ways.
